

Travel Innovation Group Ticket Protection Scheme

Version: 12 March 2024

A. Purpose:

Through the Ticket Protection Scheme [TPS], the Travel Innovation Group provides a financial guarantee to its Customers in the event of an Airline Failure of any of its Designated Airlines which results in the carrier being unable to fulfill a Ticketed Booking.

B. Booking Types

The scheme encompasses transactions made on behalf of individual passenger bookings and Group bookings. Some Terms vary due to the nature of Group bookings and these are specified within the relevant sections of the scheme.

C. Cost

The prevailing TPS fee at the time of this document as dated in the header is £4.50 per passenger including children (but excludes infants under 2 without seats).

D. Summary of Benefits:

In the event of an Airline Failure, the Travel Innovation Group will:

- 1. Claims. Promptly reimburse the Customer the fare and taxes paid for the Ticketed Bookings (less any excess – see section F6). No limits on fare value.
Group Bookings: Also includes Claims for Deposits and Balances paid, even if tickets have not been issued.
- 2. Designated Airlines. Includes all airlines including any onward carriers within the destinations. Any Excluded Airlines will be listed on the relevant website and at <https://www.travelinnovationgroup.com/tps/> and in the 'Excluded Airlines' (Category C) list. Some airlines in the Restricted Airlines (Category B) list have cover restricted to being a Ticketed Booking within 14 days of the Ticketing Deadline.
Group Bookings: We may need to seek confirmation of cover for any airlines not on our standard supplier list.
- 3. Curtailment & Repatriation. The costs of flights of a similar standard as originally booked to enable the continuation of a trip that had commenced prior to the Airline Failure.

4. Ticket Reissues. The scheme includes tickets that are reissued for the same passengers, without any further TPS fee, providing the original ticket was issued under these Terms.
Group Bookings: No new TPS fees will be charged even if passenger names within a group are changed, unless the overall Group Booking size is increased.
